Kisho Honjoso is their signature sake, known for its gentle flavor and smooth mouth-feel. To avoid deterioration of the quality of sake during the distribution stage, the sake, such as Shiroyama Sakura Ginjoshu (named for the large cherry tree that blooms on Mt. Shiroyama), is sold only at local sake stores and some specialty sake stores.

If you want to taste of "tokyo Shamo", Shamo Nabe is our recommended meal for enjoying this local delicacy. The eggs have a natural flavor with no odors due to in-house blended feed, and the yolks are yellow without carotene or paprika coloration.

Purchase freshly laid eggs and Shamo meat directly from the poultry farm.
